

Quiz: 2

1. When is species diversity generally higher?
 - a. No disturbance
 - b. High disturbance
 - c. Moderate disturbance
 - d. Drastic disturbance
2. Identify the organization that discovered this species in year 2004.

3. Very small organisms ranging from 0.25 to 12 inch in size and yet supporting 25% of marine life. What are they?
 - a. Ctenophores
 - b. Corals
 - c. Porifera
 - d. Chateognaths
4. A safe 6 Km by 1.5 Km passageway has been created for a jumbo animal in southern India. Identify the problem due to which this passageway was created for this animal.
5. Mitochondrial Co1 gene is used to identify animal species. What this technology fails to do:
 - a. Identify animal across various lifestages
 - b. Help in studying the homoplasy
 - c. Identify reticulate evolution
6. I am a part of ecosystem and generally act as a symptom like fever is a symptom for your deteriorating health. Identify what am I called?
7. What does gamma diversity signify?
 - a. Species richness in an ecosystem
 - b. Total species richness of an area
 - c. Species evenness in an ecosystem
8. A list that got conceptualized in 1994 which provides a global index of the state of change of biodiversity contains a list of?

- a. Invasive and alien species
 - b. Endangered, rare and endemic species
 - c. Weeds species
9. Wildlife sanctuary that lost all its tigers and became valley of death, which recently saw reintroduction of its residents, is?
- a. Bandhavgarh National park
 - b. Ranthambore National park
 - c. Sariska National park
10. I was aggressively grown from Gujarat to Rajasthan to green the entire area but today I am an ecological disaster drying up the soil and driving away the native species. Who am I?